

Ballestone Manor Car Show
By Tom Kenney

The Ballestone Manor Car Show was another successful Club event in the 2006 season. On June 4th, a very nice late spring day, we had 23 cars and motorcycles in attendance and more than 30 members and guests. As usual, the grounds of Ballestone Manor were well manicured and a lush green.

Everyone had a good time looking over the interesting cars brought by guests, viewing the exhibits at the Manor house museum, and just relaxing and visiting. The Sponsor's Choice award went to Jerry Ross for his 1954 Kaiser. The show dash plaque featured

Richard Hiob's 1939 Buick.

Participating in this year's Ballestone Show were: Ray Adler, 1972 Volvo; Mary & Ed Allen, 1970 Chevrolet; Allen Buerhaus, 1977 Kawasaki; Ramon DeJesus, 1982 Fiat; Paul Habicht, 1959 Cadillac; David Hamill, 1950 Cadillac; John Hammen, 1967 Ford; Darlene Heinle, 1965 Ford; Dan Hengemihle, 1967 Buick; Richard Hiob, 1939 Buick; Walter Jay, 1963 Cadillac; Anne & Tom Kenney, 1955 DeSoto; Gordon Mallonee, 1963 Chevrolet; Michael Polis, 1931 Ford; Don Rhine; Jerry Ross, 1954 Kaiser; Thomas Shaneybrook, 1974 Ford; Julie Siegrist, 1970 Oldsmobile; Ron Siegrist, 1966 Oldsmobile; Mike Simmons, 1967 Pontiac; Dennis Suski, 1969 Jaguar; Tommy Thompson, 1941 Chevrolet; Harry Wilhelm, 1968 Ford; and Tom Young, 1980 Plymouth.

Ron and Julie Siegrist arrived in matching Oldsmobile convertibles – 1966 and 1970

Antique Car Show at Ballestone Manor
Sunday, June 4, 2006

Richard Hiob, 1939 Buick
Chesapeake Region AACA
Participation Award

Jerry Ross, with Tom Young, received Sponsor's Choice Award for his 1954 Kaiser >>

Gordon Mallonee with 1963 Chevrolet

Tommy Thompson, 1941 Chevrolet