

Photo Opportunity: Garage Tour & Streetcar Museum

Photos By Buzz Diehl, Tom Kenney, Bruce Knott, Ken Briers & Ted Schneider

On April 18th, our initial Garage Tour brought out many members with their cameras. They hoped to get photos of cars hidden away in the garages of Carroll County, and it seemed like they weren't disappointed. It was a day filled with automotive eye-candy.

The first four photos, clockwise from the left: Some of Dave Young's Plymouths, 1935 & 1939 coupes, 1933 sedan, and 1947 club coupe.

The bottom four photos are members' cars which were on the tour; clockwise from the left: Bill O'Donnell's 1937 Ford pickup, Ken Briers' 1950 Ford pickup, Jack O'Hara's 1947 Ford convertible, and Bill Fox with his 1954 Oldsmobile Holiday coupe.

Continued on the next page >>

Photo Opportunity - continued

One of the fine Chevrolets at Lou Abel's garage was this 1968 Camaro – shown on the left.

In Dave Young's garage – on the right – we found this nice original 1964 Plymouth Barracuda that Diane said was her car when it was new.

The next two cars on the left and right are more of Dave Young's collection. The 1908 Maxwell (left) is an interesting brass era car that adds to any Mopar collection. Maxwell was the company that Walter Chrysler bought in the mid 1920s to form Chrysler.

This rakish styled Plymouth (right) is a 1931 Roadster

In Dottie Peddicord's garage we found this 1956 Chevrolet Cameo pickup (left), one of four that she has.

Dottie posing with one of several 1957 Chevrolet Impalas (right), Her collection includes a 1957 that was the first car that she and her late husband bought.

At the Streetcar Museum – below left – Bob Lenio's 1968 Plymouth Sport Suburban that he bought at a Cruise-In two years ago.

Gil Seibel's 1949 Packard Custom 8 (right) was given to him as a birthday present 20 years ago by his wife. She paid $350 plus $150 to transport it. It needed a total restoration. It was 5 years before it ran on its own. In 2002, Gil won a national Packard Club First Place Award with the car.

